PEARL MARI NICOLE C. CABURIAN, Petitioner, Civil Case No. 5409 For: Declaration of Nullity of Marriage -versus- JAMIESON S. LEONG, Respondent.

PETITION

The plaintiff, through counsel, unto this honourable Court, most respectfully alleges: 1. That the plaintiff is of legal age and a resident of Ciriaco Pastrano Street, Purok 1 Poblacion 1, Oroquieta City while respondent is also of legal age and residing in 101, Pinaglabanan St., San Juan City; 2. That petitioner and respondent eloped and entered into a sham marriage on December 28, 2009 (Annex "A"). 3. That petitioner after eloping with the respondent stayed in Metro Manila and on December 27, 2009 respondent received a text message from his sister telling him that she booked an appointment for the petitioner and respondent to be married and to go directly to a lawyer's office in Las Piñas giving the respondent exact address;

4. That on December 28, 2009 in the morning, petitioner and respondent went to the lawyer's office where they received a lecture and they were made to sign a blank marriage certificate;

5. Petitioner and respondent co-habited for only two (2) weeks after the celebration of the marriage since the petitioner went home to her parents in Oroquieta City two (2) weeks after the celebration of their marriage;

6. That the marriage certificate indicating that the marriage was celebrated at the Office of the Solemnizing Officer which is 118 Blumentritt St., San Juan City was false since the parties went to a lawyer's office at Las Piñas and that the solemnizing officer was not Rev. Fr. Danilo A Garland but a lawyer;

7. That no marriage license was obtained by the parties prior to the celebration of the marriage on December 28, 2009 and as a matter of fact in the marriage certificate it indicated a fake marriage license issued on December 29, 2009;

8. That at the time of the marriage, petitioner was only 22 years old and as such parental advise is required but I the instant case, no such advise was given by the parents of the petitioner as such no marriage license shall be issued by the proper government authority until after the lapse of three months from the completion of the publication of the application for marriage;

9. That for a marriage to be valid the two (2) essential requisites must be present to wit: a) contracting parties must be male and Female and have the legal capacity to enter into marriage, and b) consent of the contracting parties must be freely given before the solemnizing officer and that the formal requisites of marriage are: a) authority of the solemnizing officer, b) valid marriage license except in marriage under exceptional circumstances and c) marriage ceremony which takes place with the appearance of the contracting parties before the solemnizing officer and personal declaration that they take each other as husband and wife in the presence of not less than two (2) witnesses of legal age; 10. That under Article 4 of the Family Code of the Philippines, the absence of any of the essential or formal requisites shall render the marriage void ab initio except as stated in Article 35 (2) of the Family Code of the Philippines;

11. That since the marriage was celebrated without a marriage license the consent of the solemnizing officer indicated in the marriage certificate, the marriage is void ab initio

WHEREFORE, in view of all foregoing, the Honourable Court is respectfully prayed that, after due notice and hearing, this petition be given due course and granted and a Decision be issued declaring the marriage of the petitioner and the respondent null and void based on cogent grounds stated above to be adduced during the hearing.

Petitioner further prays for such other reliefs and remedies which are just and equitable in the premises. March 27, 2024, Oroquieta City, Philippines.
